GOV. RITTER NAMES BOARD MEMBERS FOR STATE COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

Gov. Bill Ritter today announced appointments to the governing boards for Western State College, Colorado State University, Adams State College and Fort Lewis College.

Western State College Board of Trustees
(for terms expiring Dec. 31, 2013)

Noelle E. Hagan of Gunnison
Sandra L. Mark of Gunnison (re-appointed)
Gregg P. Rippy of Glenwood Springs (re-appointed)

Colorado State University System Board of Governors
(for terms expiring Dec. 31, 2013)

Scott C. Johnson of Kit Carson
Ed J. Haselden of Castle Rock (re-appointed)
Mary Lou Makepeace of Colorado Springs

Adams State College Board of Trustees
(for terms expiring Dec. 31, 2013)

Arnold Salazar of Alamosa
Stephen A. Valdez of La Jara (re-appointed)
Charles H. Scoggin of Boulder (re-appointed)

Fort Lewis College Board of Trustees
(for terms expiring Dec. 31, 2013)

John M. Wells of Durango
Karen D. Wilde of Aurora (re-appointed)
Heidi P. Van Huysen of Denver (to fill a vacancy for a term expiring Dec. 31, 2012).

“As Colorado recovers from the worst economy since the Great Depression, our colleges and universities are critical to economic opportunity,” Gov. Ritter said. “The people I have appointed and re-appointed understand that the best economic-development strategy and the best anti-poverty strategy is an education strategy. Students and families will be well-served by each of these board members.”
