

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

Colorado State University • Colorado State University - Pueblo • CSU - Global Campus

On October 20, CSU System Chancellor Tony Frank will be on campus to discuss the CSU-Pueblo Presidential Search Process and provide an overview of the next steps. During his visit, various campus and community constituents will have the opportunity to share their thoughts and comments regarding the search and the qualities sought in the next CSU-Pueblo President.

As a valued member of the Colorado State University-Pueblo community, we invite you to participate in these important meetings but please note there will be further opportunities for input as the process develops.

The schedule for these meetings is as follows:
